STRUMMING MY PAIN

LIVE FROM THE BAYOU ROOM & BAR

MIA STRUMMS

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Strumming My Pain.

Tonight is more than a concert for me. It is a full-circle moment. What began with an 8-year-old girl sitting alone with a guitar has somehow grown into this room filled with music, energy, emotion, and people willing to share this experience together.

I want you to know how grateful I am that you chose to spend your evening here with me. Whether you've followed my journey from my very first online covers or you're hearing me perform for the first time tonight, your support means more than words could ever explain.

Every song tonight holds a memory, a feeling, or a story that shaped me in some way. My hope is that throughout this evening, you allow yourself to sing loudly, feel deeply, reflect honestly, dance freely, and simply enjoy the moment. Music has always been my safe place, and tonight I hope it becomes yours too.

To my incredible band, background vocalists, team, family, friends, and every single supporter who helped make this sold-out evening possible — thank you for believing in me while I continue building this dream independently and unapologetically.

Most importantly, thank you for supporting live music, independent artistry, and genuine connection in a world that moves so fast. Tonight, we slow down together.

I hope this evening stays with you long after the final song.

With love, gratitude, and guitar strings,

MIASTRUMMMS
